I'll bear my cross for the sake of you my God
 Your yoke is easy, and your burden is so light
 Now I'm standing in the fulness of new life

And I will carry your beacon of light
 Unto the nations, the story of christ
 How your forgiveness has led me to dance again

VERSE 5

So let my words be a reflection of yours and let this voyage be calm through the raging seas
 My life be born from the hands that are holding me
